

Family Life Specialist Job Description

Cord of Three Counseling Services is a Christian based counseling agency committed to working to preserve the institution of the family and to bring hope and emotional healing to those individuals in crisis. As a Family Life Specialist for Cord of Three, you will provide individual, family, and group facilitation and education of parenting skills.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provides psychoeducational support to clients and families as appropriate to position
- Prepares treatment plans, discharge plans, and follow-up care plans
- Collects data about clients through interview, case history, psychological tests, and/or observational techniques
- Consults with other professionals to discuss continuity of care for clients who are involved with other professional agencies
- Must integrate biblical principles in all practices as a family life specialist
- Other duties as assigned

Minimum Job Requirements:

- Must be a Christian and active within your church
- Must possess high school diploma, some college preferred
- Must possess interpersonal communication skills
- Must be willing to engage in a rigorous training program with Cord of Three
- Needs to demonstrate understanding of Christian theology as related to emotional and spiritual issues
- Computer skills in basic word processing programs

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities Required:

- Knowledge of biblical principles as related to family and individual health
- Knowledge and understanding of child/adolescent/family developmental stages
- Ability to evaluate the progress of psychoeducational programs and to make individual modifications
- Ability to maintain emotional stability to cope with human suffering, emergencies, and other stresses
- Ability to relate with individuals across all socio-economic classes
- Knowledge of community mental health resources