Cord of Three to hold Christian Parenting Conference titled “Shepherding a Child’s Heart”

[WAYCROSS, GA]- Cord of Three Counseling Center will be hosting a Christian Parenting Conference by Dr. Ted Tripp titled “Shepherding a Child’s Heart”. The conference will be held on Friday, February 19th 2010 and Saturday, February 20th, 2010 at Central Baptist Church in Waycross, GA.

Everyone wants to be a great parent — the biggest responsibility of parenthood is teaching your children to love Jesus with all their heart, soul and strength. The things your child does and says flow from the heart. Dr. Tripp’s Shepherding a Child’s Heart conference seeks to teach individuals how to speak to and engage with the hearts of children.

In writing Shepherding A Child’s Heart, Dr. Tedd Tripp drew on his thirty-plus years of experience as a pastor, counselor, school administrator, and father. He now also includes ten years of insights from teaching this material in his conferences offered around the world. In addition to speaking at conferences, Dr. Tripp is the pastor of Grace Fellowship Church in Hazleton, PA.

Parents, grandparents, and any person who is caring for the well being of a child or teenager will benefit from this conference. Whether you feel that you need immediate help as a parent or if you want to develop a deeper understanding of the Biblical model for parenting, this conference is for you.

Cord of Three Counseling Services is a Christian, non-profit counseling agency that serves six counties in southeast Georgia. The mission of Cord of Three is to provide Christ-centered services that will impact, protect, and preserve the God ordained institution of the family.
